Introduction

Dear Fellow New Yorker,

I want to take this opportunity to provide you with some important information regarding the grants process. Each year, the federal government distributes billions of dollars in the form of grants, loans, contracts and other money to institutions throughout the United States. New York's non-profit organizations, colleges, universities, businesses and local governments are exceptionally well qualified to compete for these funds. The information in this guide is meant to provide assistance to New York institutions seeking federal funds.

Finding the resources that meet your needs in the complex web of agencies on the federal and state levels of government can be an almost impossible task. For this reason, I have created this guidebook to serve as a starting point in providing information about what resources are available to individuals, colleges and universities, businesses, community organizations and local governments. Its contents are by no means comprehensive and will be updated periodically as more details become available.

The guidebook is comprised of seven different sections providing information about funding sources, strategies for writing effective grant proposals and ways in which my office can assist you in this process.

In addition to this guidebook, my Senate website (www.Gillibrand.senate.gov) is continually updated with critical information about various funding opportunities that are available to you, how to access them, and where to apply. You can also request hard copies of this guidebook, and other funding guidebooks, by filling out the order form at the end of this guidebook and mailing it back to my New York City office or by emailing an electronic copy to grants@gillibrand.senate.gov. Furthermore, if you need assistance from a federal agency or with an immigration case, please refer to the casework form at the end of this document or visit <http://gillibrand.senate.gov/services/casework/form/>. As you move forward with any grant opportunities, please contact Andrew Usyk, my Grants Director, for letters of support, when applicable. You can reach him in my Washington, D.C. Office at Grants@Gillibrand.Senate.gov, or (202)-224-4451.

Sincerely,

Kirsten E. Gillibrand
United States Senator

Section I: How Best to Find Information

- Find out who is eligible for a grant by going to the following website:
(<http://www.grants.gov/aboutgrants/eligibility.jsp>).
Other government websites may be more suitable for personal need, including:
(http://www.govbenefits.gov/govbenefits_en.portal), student loans
(<http://studentaid.ed.gov/PORTALSWebApp/students/english/index.jsp>), small business assistance (<http://www.sba.gov/>), or other business opportunities
(http://www.usa.gov/Business/Business_Gateway.shtml) such as government contracting. The website Government Benefits, Grants, and Financial Aid
(<http://www.usa.gov/Citizen/Topics/Benefits.shtml>) may also be of help.
- Grants Action News, New York State Assembly (<http://assembly.state.ny.us/gan/20090201/>)
This website provides information, including descriptions, eligibility, and funding opportunities for NYS grants, as well as some info on Federal and private funding.
- New York State Citizens Guide
(<http://www.nysegov.com/citguide.cfm?superCat=102&cat=410&content=main>)
The website provides information on available grants, as well as guidelines for application as well as eligibility.
- If eligible, search for programs in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) by Keyword and other indexes (<https://www.cfda.gov/?s=program&mode=list&tab=list>) includes grants, loans, business and nonfinancial help.
- Contact federal office given in CFDA program description: if state or local office is indicated, use CFDA Appendix IV: Federal Regional or Local Office Addresses (<https://www.cfda.gov/?s=appendix&mode=list&tab=list>) .
- Search federal websites given in each CFDA program description for more information and for state administering agencies responsible for managing these programs.
- Check current federal grants opportunities at Grants.gov (<http://www.grants.gov/>), sign up for email notification, and apply online.
- Search foundations for project funding: use the Foundation Center
(<http://www.foundationcenter.org/>) website or Foundation Center Cooperating Collections
(<http://www.foundationcenter.org/collections/index.html>) in libraries to identify national, state, and community foundations.

- Learn how to write grant proposals: follow guidelines in CFDA's Developing and Writing Grant Proposals (<https://www.cfda.gov/?s=generalinfo&mode=list&tab=list&tabmode=list&static=grants>), or take the Foundation Center Proposal Writing Short Course (<http://foundationcenter.org/getstarted/tutorials/shortcourse/index.html>).

Section II: Key Federal Funding Sources

- Grants.gov, Department of Health and Human Services (<http://www.grants.gov/>)
Federal grants website that allows eligible grant seekers (grant eligibility website: <http://www.grants.gov/aboutgrants/eligibility.jsp>) to find and apply for current competitive grant opportunities from ALL federal agencies. Grant seekers can check on notices of funding availability (NOFAs) posted in the last 7 days; sign up to receive e-mail notification of grant opportunities; and apply for federal grants through a unified process by downloading the application and submitting online. The website guides grant seekers in obtaining a DUNS (Dun and Bradstreet) number and registering at Grants.gov to apply and to track applications. For full federal program descriptions, see the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) below.
- Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance, General Services Administration (<https://www.cfda.gov/?s=main&mode=list&tab=list>)
The CFDA, issued annually and updated continuously on the Web, describes some 1600 federal grants and non-financial assistance programs. Grant seekers can identify programs that might support their projects and can learn the program's objectives, requirements, application procedures and contacts. For current notices of funding availability, see Grants.gov.
- Catalog Indexes and Listings, Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (<https://www.cfda.gov/index?s=agency&mode=list>)
Although keyword searching is often a good place to start, also browse by broad subject ("functional area"), by federal department or agency, or by beneficiary to identify more federal funding programs. CFDA program descriptions refer to local and regional federal office addresses, to related programs, and to Office of Management and Budget circulars, all available full-text on the Internet.
- Developing and Writing Grant Proposals, Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (<https://www.cfda.gov/index?s=generalinfo&mode=list&tab=list&tabmode=list>)
Guidance in formulating federal grant applications, including initial proposal development, basic components of a proposal, review recommendations, and referral to federal guidelines and literature.
- Federal Regional or Local Office Addresses, Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance Appendix IV (<https://www.cfda.gov/index?s=appendix&mode=list&tab=list&tabmode=list>) much of the federal grants budget moves to the states through formula and block grants -- state, regional, and local federal offices often handle grants applications and funds disbursement. If the CFDA program description refers to a state or regional Information Contact as listed in Appendix IV, grant seekers should contact them before applying for funding to obtain the most up-to-date information.

➤ State 'Single Points of Contact', Office of Management and Budget

(http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/grants_default)

Under Executive Order 12372, some states require federal grants applicants to submit a copy of their application for state government level review and comment. The state offices listed here coordinate federal financial assistance and may direct federal development. For help in identifying state-level grants, other state government agencies websites may be found at State and Local Agencies by Topic

(http://www.usa.gov/Agencies/State_and_Territories/Agencies_by_Topic.shtml).

➤ CFDA in Local Libraries, Government Printing Office

Although CFDA is available full-text on the Internet, some may prefer a print edition. However, only the Web version is continuously updated -- the published volume is annual with no supplements. The CFDA is available in all states in Federal Depository Libraries (<http://catalog.gpo.gov/fdlpdir/>).

Section III: Related Federal Resources

- A-Z Index of U.S. Department and Agencies, General Services Administration (http://www.usa.gov/Agencies/Federal/All_Agencies/index.shtml)
To better develop a grant proposal, search a department or agency's Home Page to learn more about its programs and objectives. The site USA.gov (<http://www.usa.gov/>) also links to Government Benefits, Grants and Financial Aid (<http://www.usa.gov/Citizen/Topics/Benefits.shtml>).
- Homeland Security State Contacts and Grant Award Information, Department of Homeland Security (<http://www.dhs.gov/xgovt/grants/index.shtml>)
Click on map for state allocations and contact information. Most Homeland Security non-disaster grant programs are designated for state and local governments and specific entities such as colleges, etc. Unsolicited applications from individuals are generally not accepted. Includes Urban Area Security Initiative, Citizens Corps, Medical Response System, Operation Stonegarden (border security), and Infrastructure Protection. Programs for firefighters may be found at Assistance to Firefighters (<http://www.firegrantsupport.com/>).
- Disaster Assistance, Federal Emergency Management Agency (<http://www.fema.gov/hazard/index.shtm>)
Disaster assistance programs activate only after a Presidential disaster declaration is issued and is restricted to those residing within the disaster area. FEMA disaster assistance falls into three general categories: Individual and Households; Public Assistance for emergency services and repair or replacement of damaged public facilities; and Hazard Mitigation funding to reduce future losses to public and private property.
- USA.gov for Business, General Services Administration (http://www.usa.gov/Business/Business_Gateway.shtml)
Includes contracting with the federal government, international trade and exporting, and small business. See also financial assistance links at Business.gov (<http://www.business.gov/>) and the Small Business Administration (<http://www.sba.gov/>) websites.
- USA.gov for Nonprofits, General Services Administration (<http://www.usa.gov/Business/Nonprofit.shtml>)
Links to federal department and agency information and service for nonprofit organizations, including fundraising and outreach, grants, loans and other assistance, laws and regulations, management and operations, online services, registration and licensing, and tax information.
- Faith-Based and Community Initiatives, Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives (<http://www.whitehouse.gov/government/fbci/centers.html>)

Federal departments and agencies operate a number of programs to serve Americans in need for which faith-based and community organizations may apply. Consult Guidance to Faith-Based and Community Organizations on Partnering with the Federal Government (http://www.whitehouse.gov/government/fbci/guidance_document_01-06.pdf), Federal Funds for Organizations That Help Those in Need, and A Guide to Federal Economic Development Programs for Faith-Based and Community Organizations (http://www.whitehouse.gov/government/fbci/EconDevCatalogue_v2.pdf). Many are formula grants made available to states and local governments, which in turn award grants to grassroots and local organizations. To learn about them, contact local and state agencies responsible for managing these programs.

- Student Aid on the Web, Department of Education (<http://studentaid.ed.gov/PORTALSWebApp/students/english/index.jsp>) financial assistance for education beyond high school is generally "needs-based" and often includes loans and work-study, in addition to some grants. College and university applications, websites, and brochures usually include financial aid information for prospective and incoming students.
- GovBenefits.gov, Department of Labor (http://www.govbenefits.gov/govbenefits_en.portal)
Government grants are not direct assistance to individuals, but fund state and local programs providing help to those in need. This online screening site can be used to identify state and local government benefits and how to apply. Covers direct payments, loans, insurance, training, or other services.
- FTC Consumer Alert, Federal Trade Commission (<http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/edu/pubs/consumer/alerts/alt134.shtm>)
The FTC warns consumers to beware of paying "processing fees" for information that is available free to the public. Ads claiming federal grants are available for home repairs, home business, unpaid bills, or other personal expenses are often a scam.
- OMB Grants Management Web Site, Office of Management and Budget (<http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/grants/index.html>)
OMB establishes government-wide grants management policies and guidelines through circulars and common rules. OMB Circulars (<http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/circulars/index.html>) are cited in Catalog program descriptions and may be printed out full-text.

Section IV: Key New York State Funding Sources

➤ Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services

<http://www.oasas.state.ny.us/hps/grants/grants.cfm>

Grant seekers are provided with a list of numerous grants that may relate to their cause. The applicant deadlines are posted on the website; however, not all grants will have deadlines. Each grant description contains a detailed outline relating to the amount of funding and the applicant's eligibility.

➤ Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance

<http://www.otda.state.ny.us/main/cgo/default.asp>

The grants provided OTDA can be obtained by the grant seeker after a bid has been placed. Before a bid can be placed, an application has to be completed, which is provided on the website. Once the application has been submitted, a list of bidding opportunities has been made available to find grants pertaining to specific causes.

➤ New York State Parks, Recreation, and Historic Preservation

<http://www.nysparks.state.ny.us/grants/>

OPRHP has established state grants that pertain to the environment that encourage preservation, improvement, restoration, and rehabilitation. Letters of Support from Senator Gillibrand

While Senator Gillibrand does NOT decide which organizations are awarded grants or other federal funding, there are instances in which it is appropriate for the Senator to write a letter of support for an application. If you wish to request a letter of support for your application, you must supply Senator Gillibrand with the following:

1. A description of your organization,
2. Summary of the application,
3. a description of what the money will be used for, and
4. a draft letter of support
